Reason for Exemption Request: Please be specific and detailed

The Tucker County Commission will consider your request on an individual and yearly basis. (while you may be exempt 1 year you may not be exempt for future billings) All Ambulance Fees will be considered due and payable with interest until the request is granted in writing. In the event the County Commission denies your request you may appeal this decision to the Circuit Court at your request by calling 304-478-2866 to schedule an appointment.

Please be specific in the reason you are submitting this request such as: I no longer own this property, the property is not a liveable structure (photo's are required)
